

Claim #79 Mandy McIntosh

No. 79

Claim No. 79
Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866, with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Mandy McIntosh, a Freedwoman of the Creek Nation, aged 30. Spinster, a loyal refugee, being duly examined and sworn, (She understanding and conversing in the English language.) deposes and says. Whilst living at her home on the Canadian, about three miles from North Park Town, and sometime in the month of August 1863, she was driven away therefrom by the Rebels, under command of Gen. Cooper, and fled, hastily in the night time, to avoid being captured, and finally succeeded in reaching Gibson where she found protection. — This deponent further says that at the time of her flight from home, as aforesaid, she owned and possessed, and did necessarily abandon and lose, all the property herein-after stated, and never afterwards recovered the same or any part thereof: to say:

of Seven Head of Stock Hogs, at $5 each	$35.00
Set Household good, Kitchen Furniture &c	66.00
making a total value of	$101.00
One hundred and one dollars

Further this deponent saith not.

The undersigned, Billy Caesar, a Freeman of Color, of the Creek Nation, and Abe Prince, a Freedman, of the same, both loyal refugees, being jointly duly examined and sworn, (they understanding and conversing in the English language,) do depose and say: They are not interested in the claim of Mandy Mcintosh in any pecuniary manner whatever. That they have heard the foregoing Affidavit read to them, and know its contents, and that the same is correct and true. These deponents further say, that, of their own knowledge, the claimant, Mandy, at the time of her flight from home, did command possess
and did necessarily abandon and lose all the property
set forth in her deposition, and in the manner therein deposed by her. Further these deponents do not say.

Billy Caesar.

Award.

The loss of property specified above, is deemed established by the foregoing testimony - Also, the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is in some instances considered excessive. Upon inquiry, it is found the values of the different kinds of property at the time the loss occurred will be as follows:-

Hogs - Stock $2.00 each.

and for the following one-half the claimed value:-

Household goods - Kitchen furniture, &c. - $33.00

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant - Mandy McIntosh Forty seven dollars. -

$47<sup>00</sup>
